Jury Fails To Reach Verdict On Coplon

No Result In 12-Hour Deliberation

Washington, June 29.—(AP)—The Federal Court jury deliberating the fate of Judith Coplon failed to reach a verdict tonight. The jury asked to be taken to a hotel for the night at 9:40 p.m. (CST) after earlier indications that a verdict might be near.

Only a short time before the jury had come in to ask Federal Judge Albert L. Reeves for further instruction, particularly in regard to interpreting "intent" of the defendant.

The former government girl is charged with taking secret government documents with intent to pass them on to a foreign power—Russia.

Will Deliberate Further

When the jury asked for new instructions, its foreman, Andrew H. Norford, 34, a telephone company employee, said they wanted to deliberate further tonight.

Shortly after they resumed deliberations, however, they gave up hope of reaching an early verdict. They were taken to a hotel under guard of marshals.

At the time, the espionage case against the former Justice Department worker had been in the jury's hands for nearly 12 and one-half hours.

Fits New Objections

Even while Judge Reeves was explaining the law to the jury, defense attorney Archibald Palmer filed new objections, as he has done frequently throughout the long trial.

Before the jury was brought in, Palmer had made still another motion for a mistrial. He based it on a newspaper story which he said showed the jury had been given "misinformation." Like all his previous mistrial motions, it was promptly denied by the judge.

Reserve After Break

The jury will resume its deliberations after breakfast tomorrow morning. The jurors will decide the exact time.

In response to the jury's request for explanation of the word "intent" in the indictments, Judge Reeves said if the jurors found that Miss Coplon took any papers from government files with reason to believe the information in them would be used to this country's injury and to the benefit of a foreign power, that would meet the charge.

He asked whether he had helped the jury. Norford replied: "I believe that you have answered the doubt in the minds of some of the jurors."

Crowds milled about the court room during the night. Miss Coplon, too, remained in the buildings as the hours passed without a verdict.

Emergency Plan To End Hawaiian Strike Collapses

Honolulu, June 29.—(AP)—An emergency plan to settle Hawaii's 60-day waterfront strike apparently collapsed today under the weight of union objections.

Two union strike strategy committees recommended to members that the plan be rejected. Membership will begin voting tomorrow.

Jack Hall, Hawaiian leader of the striking International Longshoremen's and Warehousemen's Union declared:

"The chips are down. It looks now like this strike will go on at least a month."

Hall had just read a fact-finding board's report, handed down yesterday, proposing a wage increase of 14 cents an hour as a basis for peace on the waterfront. The union asks 32 cents.

Lie Detector Test Confirms Couple's Story Of Drowning

Chicago, June 29.—(AP)—Police reported that lie detector tests today confirmed a couple's account of the drowning of a Chicago business man on a boating party last night.

Joseph Lukas, 40, head of the Northwest Radio Sales Corporation, disappeared from a cabin cruiser in Lake Michigan. Those who took the lie detector tests were Dominic Siragusa, 35, owner of the 40-foot boat, and Miss Beth Adams, 23, former beauty queen.

They reported Lukas vanished while the boat was a mile off shore, north of the Chicago harbor. Siragusa said they last saw Lukas in the stern, listening to a radio broadcast.

In 1940, 57 per cent of Americans were living in cities and towns, a 17 per cent increase over the number in 1930.

Taft-Hartley Foes Surrender Fight

Washington, June 29.—(P)—Foes of the Taft-Hartley act surrendered today in their fight to get rid of the labor law this year.

The Senate debate appeared to be rushing to a conclusion with the entire program of Senator Taft (R-OH) generally expected to prevail.

Hint Baruch May Lose Advisory Role Of Three Decades

Washington, June 29.—(P)—The White House indicated today that Bernard M. Baruch may no longer hold the presidential advisory role he has exercised unofficially over the past three decades.

It said he was "badly informed" in his charge that the administration is taking a "needless gamble" with the nation's security by bot-ching up a total mobilization plan drafted for instant use if war comes.

This sharp rebuke was issued at a news conference by an aide to President Truman. He said the President himself would have more to say on the matter at his news conference tomorrow.

The 77-year-old financier promptly countered from New York where he told a reporter: "my statement goes. I'm not misinformed. I won't repeat further until I see who made the statement. They've got to get rid of this vested interest in error."

Baruch loosed his blast yesterday in a speech to graduates of the Armed Forces' Industrial college. He claimed that a mobilization preparedness plan drawn up last year by the National Security resources board had been turned down by Mr. Truman.

Czech Police Use Force Against Vatican Diplomat

Prague, Czechoslovakia, June 29.—Czechoslovakia's communist police used force in trying to question a Vatican diplomat, a source close to Vatican spokesmen said today.

The informant said secret police forcibly entered the car of Msgr. Genaro Verolino, counselor and chargé d'affaires in the papal nunciature here, and made him drive to police headquarters at Kosice, Slovakia, last night.

An informed Vatican source in Rome said the Vatican expects its diplomatic links with Prague to be severed soon by the Czech government. The hand-writing on the wall, it was said, was the recent communists charge that Msgr. Verolino is the "mind behind the anti-state activities of the church."

The church source said a formal protest has been made to the Czech foreign ministry against "this violation of the rights of a diplomat."

The new development highlighted another day in the spreading church-state strife. It also was disclosed that communist authorities have begun censoring sermons of Catholic bishops and imposing a gag on any who try to criticize the government.

Rumors spread that Primate Josef Beran, archbishop of Prague, had been formally arrested after the defiant 60-year-old clergyman failed to appear today at a service for consecration of new priests.

Broyles Bills Advance Toward Roll Call Vote

Springfield, Ill., June 29.—(P)—The Broyles anti-communist bills today were advanced for a possible passage roll call tomorrow in the Illinois House. The Senate already has approved them.

Several minor amendments offered by sponsors were adopted without discussion.

The key bill would make Communist party membership a felony carrying a fine to five years prison sentence upon conviction.

The other two bills deny the privilege of public office to Communists or Communists sympathizers, require a loyalty oath by persons holding jobs supported by tax funds, and provide for dismissal of teachers advocating subversive doctrines in the classroom.

They reported Lukas vanished while the boat was a mile off shore, north of the Chicago harbor. Siragusa said they last saw Lukas in the stern, listening to a radio broadcast.

Noble Acquitted Of Homicide

South Bend, Ind., June 29.—(P)—A jury of three women and nine men deliberated only ten minutes this afternoon before acquitting Robert D. Noble, 30, of Iowa City, Ia., of reckless homicide.

The charge was made against him in the death of Miss Marie Despres,

18-year-old St. Mary's college student who was killed by Noble's car while crossing a highway near the University of California. They later visited the North Diamond mine and then the Home- stead mine.

Heavy Nationalist Bombers Stage Raid On Shanghai

BULLETIN
Shanghai, Thursday, June 30.—(P)—Forty-three persons were reportedly killed in the nationalists' first raid on Shanghai with heavy bombers yesterday.

Shanghai, June 2.—(P)—Chinese Nationalist heavy bombers made their first raid on Shanghai today. First reports were that two Chinese were killed and possibly 100 others injured in the populous Northern district.

At least two four-engine liberators flew in low and leisurely. They ignored machine gun fire from the ground and dropped sticks of bombs in the crowded Chapel district of tenements and factories.

In a low, even voice, she backed up the denial of her husband, Alger, that he never sold out his former high State department office to the Soviet Union.

Clad in a green dress, straw hat and white gloves, Mrs. Hiss was on the witness stand for the second day at the federal perjury trial of her 44-year-old husband.

Whittaker Chambers, self-styled former courier for the spy ring, charged that Hiss gave him State department secrets after Mrs. Hiss copied them from original documents.

"Did you ever hand over government exhibits 1 to 47, including four handwritten notes, to Mr. Chambers at any time?" asked Defense Attorney Lloyd Paul Stryker.

"I certainly did not," replied the 45-year-old Mrs. Hiss.

The exhibits include the documents Chambers said he got from Hiss early in 1938.

Hiss denied ever giving secrets to Chambers and said he had not seen him since Jan. 1, 1937. Because of these denials, New York grand jury last December indicted Hiss on two perjury counts.

Dewey Eliminates Himself As Choice To Succeed Wagner

Albany, N. Y., June 29.—(P)—Gov. Thomas E. Dewey today definitely eliminated himself as a prospective candidate to succeed U.S. Senator Robert F. Wagner, veteran new Democrat.

Dewey, the defeated GOP presidential candidate last fall, was asked at a news conference:

"Do you plan to run for the United States Senate this year?"

Dewey said he expected to make an interim appointment of a senator "in the near future."

He ruled himself out as a prospective choice for this appointment. He said he would consider possible choices over the weekend.

Dewey was asked whether the interim appointee, who would serve until Dec. 1, would presumably be the Republican candidate in November to fill the remainder of Wagner's six year term expiring Jan. 3, 1945.

He said "not necessarily at all." The governor declined to mention names.

Wagner resigned his senate seat yesterday. He has been ill for over two years.

Police Quell Race Disorders At Pool In Washington

Washington, June 29.—(P)—Park police called out all their reserves today to quell disorders at a public swimming pool where Negroes and Whites have clashed sporadically the past two days.

Five persons—three white and two colored—were arrested and at least four injured before the fighting was halted. One of those hurt was Joan Sexton, a 17-year-old white girl who was knocked down by a policeman's horse. She was taken to Casuality hospital where it was reported two of her toes were fractured.

Bystanders said about 1,000 persons—mostly young men—gathered at Anacostia park in southeast Washington where the swimming pool is located. The park is near the usual anchorage of President Truman's yacht, the Williamsburg.

Officials attributed the clashes to the recent dropping of a segregation rule at the order of the Interior department which maintains the district's park system. The District of Columbia Recreation Board, which operates the pools, said Monday it will remove its employees from the area unless segregation is restored.

Madisonville, Ky., June 29.—(P)—Three non-union coal mines near there were closed today following mass visits by United Mine Workers members.

Sheriff Ras P. Gilliland said he requested the mine owners to suspend operations because the situation was beyond his control. There were no reports of disturbances or violence, however.

The closed pits included the East Diamond mine and the North Diamond mine, both owned by the West Kentucky Coal company, and a mine owned by the Homestead coal company.

Jess Loveless, secretary of the UMW's District 23, said the union members visiting the mines came from all counties in the West Kentucky coal field. He said there were no disturbances or violence, however.

The sheriff said he requested the men to leave the company property. They refused, the sheriff said, and he requested the management to close the mines. The three operations normally employ around 1,000 men.

Hoyer was before the House armchair committee as a witness in the construction of the super-beta-tron here. Today, he said, it's about the huge cyclotron at the University of California. And now, the University of Illinois is building a 300,000,000 volt betatron which will throw a beam of them at the touch of a button.

The betatron was invented by Prof. Donald W. Kerst of the U. of I. in 1940. Models of 22,000,000-volt capacity are in commercial production.

the construction of the super-beta-

SINGLE HOUSE VETO MAY SNAG REORGANIZATION OF GOVERNMENT

Congress has erected a sturdy road block in the path of government reorganization. Thoughtful citizens must hope that the men who approved this action will get the stern rebuke they deserve from the people for their unstatesmanlike behavior.

The labors of the Hoover Commission on reorganization have been hailed by both major parties as a magnificent contribution toward better government.

Former President Hoover, head of the project, estimated that $3,000,000,000 annually might be saved by putting the commission's recommendations for a vast reshuffling into effect promptly.

But it has been known for many months that many of the suggestions for revamping could not be carried out without giving the President broad new powers. Thus it has been up to Congress to clear the way.

The House passed an enabling bill early this year. But not without raising immediate doubts about the depth of congressional enthusiasm for reorganization. For it exempted several federal agencies, including the powerful military establishment from the big grant of authority.

Hoover himself protested any major exemptions would wreck the plan and defeat its purpose.

The Senate heeded his warning and eliminated the exemptions. But then it proceeded to put up a barrier of its own. It decided that any specific reorganization proposal could be killed by a veto from a single branch of Congress.

The administration had wanted a bill that required a veto by both branches. It felt this was a sufficient check on use of the reorganization powers.

For a month the two chambers battled, most of the time in deadlock, over which of these obstructions—the exemptions or the single House veto—should remain in the bill.

Finally the Senate triumphed and the single House veto stayed in. The only concession was a requirement that a veto must be by a majority of all the membership, rather than just those voting at the time.

Many veteran observers in the capital predict this obstacle means we are going to get very little reorganization. They say it will be easy for either House, concerned by possible loss of patronage through changes aimed at reducing government personnel, to muster the majority needed to block such plans.

These observers may be unduly pessimistic. We hope they are. For the Hoover recommendations provide the biggest opportunity ever presented to reduce the confusion, overlapping, inefficiency and waste that have accompanied the headlong growth of government in Washington.

Congress has been shouting about these matters a long time, and now it is daily sounding the economy gong.

If it fails to seize this unparalleled chance to act, the American people are not likely to listen seriously to any future congressional cries on this theme. How could they believe them sincere?

New Methodist Superintendent Opens Office Here

Rev. Victor H. Roberts, recently appointed superintendent of the Jacksonville District of the Illinois Methodist Conference, is located temporarily at MacMurray College, where a district office is being maintained.

He has just completed a five year pastorate at Macomb. There he was active in the organization of the United Student Christian Foundation at Western Illinois State college. The Macomb Methodist church also made extensive improvements to its property the past year.

Rev. Roberts is a graduate of Illinois college and of Garrett Biblical Institute of Evanston, and also was a graduate student in sociology at the University of Illinois.

He and Mrs. Roberts have four sons, two of whom are in professional work and two of whom are in college.

His first pastorate was at Manchester, followed by a pastorate at White Hall.

The family plans to move to Jacksonville as soon as a district parsonage property is available.

Four outstanding horse shows at the Morgan county fairgrounds will feature the Labor Day celebration for the Jacksonville area. Horse fencers from all sections of Illinois and adjoining states will come here for matinee and evening shows to be held Sunday and Monday, September 4-5.

Preliminary plans for the occasion were made Tuesday night by representatives of the Jacksonville Saddle club and the Morgan County Agricultural Fair association.

William T. Hudson and Samuel N. Osborne will be co-chairmen of the general committee.

H. C. Merriman will serve as secretary. All members of the two sponsoring organizations will make up the committee that will have charge of various phases of the two day activity. The co-chairmen plan to announce the list of committees within the next few days.

High quality horse shows have been gaining in popularity and capacity crowds at the Labor Day holiday shows are anticipated if the weather is favorable.

Renovation of the fairgrounds is moving along well. Carpenters and painters are busy on the grandstand and barn. The entire grounds will be in A-1 shape by Labor Day, association leaders said Wednesday.

Sauer adds that some conservation work, such as contouring, terracing, and waterways may not always mean extra cash costs. This work can often be done with labor and machinery available on your farm.

Boyle's ColumnPoor Man's Philosopher Advises June Bridegroom

By Hal Boyle

New York, June 29.—P.—To the poor man's philosopher:

"Dear Sir:

"I am 25 years old. I will become a June bridegroom the last day of the month. As this is my first marriage, I am anxious to make a good impression. Is there anything I ought to know? Should I look for a job now—or later?"

Bashful."

(Signed)

Your anxiety is quite natural, Bashful. But you must calm yourself, my boy. After all you soon will be worrying for two, and that takes strength.

You show a lot of character in your desire to make a good impression at your first wedding. So many boys these days go into marriage thoughtlessly—they just take it as another light-hearted adventure.

Yes, there are many things you ought to know. Naturally, my boy, there are a few business details to be straightened out. And it is better that they be arranged in advance so that there will be no hard feelings afterward.

The first thing, of course, is the dowry. You simply mustn't let any affection for your bride influence you in this important matter. More and more parents are finding themselves with daughters on their hands these days, and a good man is getting harder to find. So drive a fair but sharp bargain.

Some Diffuse Settlements

Many fathers-in-law still dislike making cash settlements, and it is perhaps wise to respect this old-fashioned prejudice. However, if your bride's dad is any man at all he probably will be only too glad to present you and his daughter with a newly-furnished apartment, rented for three years. If he isn't able to buy you a new car, too, be big about it—take his old car.

Now there is the matter of the wedding dress. Too much stress has been laid on the importance of the ring. After all it is only a symbol. Buy a simple ring. Just be sure the gold won't wear off it until at least three days after the ceremony.

What to wear? My boy, they probably wouldn't notice what you were wearing if you showed up in bathing trunks. Don't do it, however—even as a gag. Better arrive in a neat blue serge and wear a necktie. Invite Old Girl Friends

Authorities differ as to whether you should invite your old girl friends to the ceremony. For my part I believe you should. The sight of, say, half a dozen of your ex-flames weeping in despair will give your bride a feeling of quiet victory.

But once she has said "I do" you must begin at once teaching her how two can live as cheaply as—two. Give her a little lesson in thrift. When the guests shower you with old shoes, pick up a pair and murmur, "Himmmmm, my size." And scrape up a few handfuls of rice from the pavement and stuff them in your pockets. If she's really your little canary, she'll cook the rice and keep right on chirping.

There is one last thing, my boy—that matter of a job. Just before you drive off in your father-in-law's car, it might be wise to suggest that he start looking at once for employment for you.

Now I'm Going Back To High School!

When I saw lights burning in the High School auditorium last night, I looked in to see what went on. About twenty people were listening to Buzz Ellis, the electrician, talk about television.

I slipped into a back seat and asked Hap Thomas what was up. Hap told me it was the new Self-Improvement Club. I stayed to listen—and learned a lot. Buzz really knows his stuff.

Turns out this club meets every Friday night. Each member gives a talk on the subject he knows most about. I joined on the spot because learning new things is one of my favorite hobbies.

From where I sit, it's willingness to learn from the other person that makes Americans tolerant towards so many different viewpoints and tastes in things. Just because Buzz Ellis goes for chocolate malteds, while I prefer a mellow glass of beer, doesn't mean I'm right and he's wrong. Incidentally, next week I'm going to talk on how to run a newspaper.

Sub-Station To Be Located At Maple Chest Gift Shop

Charles J. Ator, Jacksonville postmaster, announced Wednesday that the local sub-station, located on South West street, would be moved to the Maple Chest Gift Shop at 217 West State street.

The city has had a sub-station since about 1906, when the present post office building was erected on East State street.

The sub-station has always been located in the west central part of the city. Before being moved to Operations at the new location will begin on Friday, July 1, with Mrs. Ruth Swartzwelder, proprietor of the shop, as clerk in charge. Hours to be maintained at the new sub-station are from 9 a.m. to 5:30 p.m. on weekdays and from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. on Saturdays.

The last days of June finds all agricultural activities well ahead of schedule with excellent prospects for record-breaking crops, said farmers from 11 west central Illinois counties who were in Jacksonville Wednesday for an all-day meeting for AAA committee men.

Corn and soybeans are looking extra good, the moisture deficiencies brought by dry weather in March and April have been erased, corn borer and grasshopper hazards have been reduced greatly by the June rains and there's very large acreage of high-quality, high-yielding wheat, they reported. The visitors added, however, that oats were spotty and most of them felt this season's yield would fall below that of 1948.

BIG WHEAT ACREAGE

Fieldman Edwell E. Gordes of Chandlerville said recent figures showed a much larger acreage in wheat this year. Every county in his area showed an increase when farmers who had been planting soybeans during the war years switched many of those acres to the production of winter wheat. Brown county, he said, has three times as much wheat as it averaged during the years of 1945-8.

Oscar Reichart of Virginia observed that the wheat crop was slightly better than it was last year. "And it was very good then." One of his fields that made 20 bushels per acre last year made 25 when combined this week. He expects 140 acres planted by his three sons, Roscoe, Alvin and Herman, to average 30 bushels an acre.

W. Umbach of Easton said some oats in his area were "on the poor side, but the wheat is fine." Corn is far advanced there, with some of it due to tassel within the next ten days.

GOOD IN GREENE

Greene county, as a whole, "has had just the right amount of rain, according to J. Greer Burns of Greenfield. Corn is booming every day; wheat is excellent, but oats will probably be a little poorer than last year, he added.

Two Women Join V.F.W. Auxiliary At White Hall

White Hall—Two women became members of the V.F.W. Auxiliary at a meeting held Monday night at the Griswold annex. The new members are Mrs. Edith Bishop and Miss Dorothy M. Young.

During the business session, presided over by the president, Mrs. Marjorie McGlasson, plans were made for holding a joint picnic with the V.F.W. on Sept. 3 in White-side park.

The next meeting will be on July 14 at the home of Mrs. Lena Mae Wells, where a potluck supper will be served at 7:30 p. m. Members are to meet at 7 o'clock at the Tilley Beauty shop for transportation to the Wells home.

Jacksonville 4-H Camp Season Opens July 7; Good Attendance Seen

The western Illinois 4-H camp located on the shores of Lake Jacksonville near the Asbury church will open on July 7, when farm advisers, home advisers and youth assistants from 15 counties attend a pre-camping session. They will be joined by members of the agriculture extension service, University of Illinois.

In making the announcement, Farm Adviser E. H. Garlich said there "will be more work than play periods during the two day camp."

ARRESTED IN INDIANA ON ABANDONMENT CHARGE

Sheriff Ralph Bourn and Deputy Arthur Roach left Jacksonville early Wednesday morning for Indianapolis, where they will pick up Charles R. Buchanan of Jacksonville and return him to Morgan county.

Buchanan was arrested by Indianapolis police Monday and will be returned here to face a charge of wife and child abandonment.

Morgan and Scott boys and girls are included in the contingent that will begin the first regular camping period on Sunday, July 10.

Expect 750-800 This Year
Business Manager Ralph B. Hawley said between 750 and 800 youngsters would attend the camp this year. Five three-day camping periods will be held during the month of July, the only month the camp will be open this year.

Mr. Hawley, principal of the Mason City high school, has had years of experience in camp direction with the Boy Scouts, Y.M.C.A., and the East Bay camp on Lake Bloomington. His wife, a registered nurse, will be the camp nurse.

With the exception of food preparation, all activities will be housed this year in 14 Canadian-type tents. These tents have windows and ventilators. Each will accommodate ten double-deck bunks.

The kitchen, which was largely built by volunteer labor, is nearly ready for use. Equipment will include a walk-in refrigerator, two restaurant type stoves; a large mixer, dishes, silverware and other utensils valued at $5,000. The association hopes to install an automatic dish washer for the 1950 season.

"A Grand Start!"

"The association has made a grand start," Manager Hawley said Wednesday. "Development, of course, depends upon finances, but the future of the camp looks mighty bright."

Mr. Hawley said he was both surprised and gratified with the spirit of cooperation shown by Jacksonville business houses. "They have gone out of their way to help."

The bathing dock was under construction Wednesday. It will be supported on piers off the lake shore. Swimming will be permitted during stipulated periods in two roped-off areas under the supervision of a trained lifeguard.

A new road to the camp area has been graded, but surfacing has not yet been completed. Association officers expressed thanks to Earl Hemmrich, who gave them a free-of-

RADIOACTIVE SULPHUR TRACES CITRUS BURN

Vancouver, Canada—(P)—Radioactive sulfur tracers and a Geiger counter are used at the University of California to learn how sulfur burns citrus fruits. This knowledge may be useful to make safe such popular insecticides as sulfur dust and lime-sulfur sprays.

The methods were reported at the annual meeting of the Pacific Division of the American Association of the Advancement of Science. The report was based on work done by Dr. F. M. Turrell and Marcella Chervenak of the College of Agriculture's Citrus Experiment Station, Riverside.

It appears that when there are not enough metals present in the peel sap to tie up the sulfate formed from the sulfur dust, the sulfate becomes sulfuric acid which is responsible for the burn.

THERE'S LIFE IN OLD SALT MINE

Salt Lake City—(P)—The Great Salt Lake is not entirely without life, although it is several times saltier than ocean water. Analyses have shown the salt content to range through the years from less than 13 to about 27 percent. Because of the salt a swimmer cannot sink in the lake. Minute brine shrimp, various larvae, insects and algae live in the water.

FINEST CIGARETTE LABORATORY

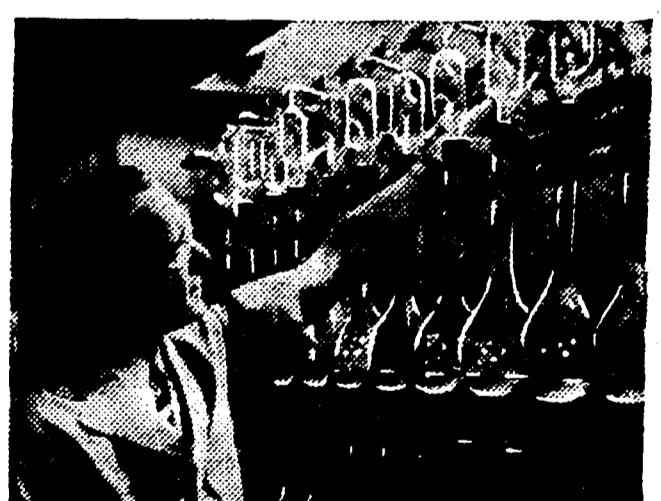

America's largest cigarette research laboratory is your guarantee that Luckies are a finer cigarette!

You see here the largest and most complete laboratory of its kind operated by any cigarette manufacturer in America.

For many years Lucky Strike scientists have delved into cigarette research on an extensive scale. Out of this has grown an elaborate system of quality control. Every step in the making of Luckies—from before the tobacco is bought until the finished cigarette reaches you—comes under the laboratory's watchful eye. Literally hundreds of precision tests are conducted daily to make certain that the Lucky Strike you smoke is a finer, milder, more enjoyable cigarette. As you read this, a constant stream of tobacco . . . samples from every tobacco-growing area . . . is flowing into the laboratory in Richmond, Virginia. These samples are scientifically analyzed, and reports of their quality go to the men who buy at auction for the makers of Lucky Strike.

Armed with this confidential, scientific information—and their own sound judgment—these men go after finer, lighter, milder tobacco. This fine tobacco—together with scientifically controlled manufacturing methods—is your assurance that there is no finer cigarette in the world today than Lucky Strike!

Testing tobacco. Samples from every tobacco-growing area are analyzed before and after purchase. These extensive scientific analyses, along with the expert judgment of Lucky Strike buyers, assure you that the tobacco in Luckies is fine!

So round, so firm, so fully packed. Typical of many special devices designed to maintain highest standards of cigarette quality, this mechanism helps avoid loose ends . . . makes doubly sure your Luckies is so round, so firm, so fully packed.

So free and easy on the draw. This meter draws air through the cigarette, measures the draw. Samples are tested to see if they are properly filled. Tests like this one are your guarantee that Luckies are truly free and easy on the draw.

HOME ON WHEELS—The increasing usefulness of the automobile as a key part of American life is demonstrated graphically in this on-the-road photograph showing the youngster reclining on one of the convertible twin beds of a 1949 Nash "Airflyte." Since the beds can be made up separately, the father still can drive the car while mother sits comfortably next to her son. To make up the bed, latches at the base of the front seat back are released, then the back of the seat is lowered to a stop which has been swung out from under the rear seat cushion. All the trunk space remains available for luggage and special screens permit full ventilation. The twin beds are a full five feet wide.

Walker Cooper Is Glad He Got Away
From Durocher

Pittsburgh, June 29—(P)—Walker Cooper is shedding no tears for the Brooklyn Dodgers today after a three year exile from organized baseball.

The 34-year-old Cincinnati catcher is convinced the scrappy New York Giant manager wanted to be rid of him. He indicated the feeling was mutual.

"We never had words," Cooper said today. "But I always felt he never wanted me around and it was just a question of time when he would get rid of me."

Cooper was traded to the reds June 13 in a straight player deal for catcher Ray Mueller. A few days later, the Giants sold catcher Mickey Vernon to the Boston Braves.

Of Durocher's managerial methods, the big catcher said: "I don't think he used the right tactics in handling players. You can get on some fellows and help them. You get on others and you hurt them. Durocher jumps on everyone."

The Giants are currently in fifth place and the Reds in sixth. Let his criticism sounds like sour grapes, Cooper wants it made plain he's plenty happy with the Reds—and with manager Bucky Walters.

Local softball fans will remember Max Legate who twirled with a Granite city softball team in the state tourney here several years back. Max is reportedly recording a brilliant mark as a hurler for the Racine, Wis., Metal Parts, a team in the National Fastball league. Max won 15 and lost 7 league games for the Racine squad last year and was the only pitcher to beat the powerful Fort Wayne Zolliners in an exhibition game. The big righthander has no hit games to his credit in approximately 6 seasons of play.

One sportswriter calls Leo's methods daring. We'll go along with that—he's daring like the guy that goes over Niagara Falls in a barrel. And, his power-laden lineup of last year is dropping in league standings just like said guy in said barrel going over said falls.

Couple Will Live In Jacksonville After Honeymoon

State Street Presbyterian church in Jacksonville was the setting for the wedding at noon Wednesday of Miss Marianne Ranson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Gail Ranson of 905 Edgewood Road, and Joseph Giangreco, son of Mrs. Michael Giangreco, of Buffalo, N. Y., and the late Michael Giangreco. Rev. Lewis N. Raymond, pastor, received the vows.

Preceding the ceremony, Miss Melba Potter, organist, and Miss Mary Helen Potter, soloist, both cousins of the bride, presented a recital. Miss Mary Helen Potter sang "Because" and "On This Day, O Beautiful Mother."

Gown Of White Marquise

Given in marriage by her father, the bride was gowned in white marquise over satin. The design featured a fitted bodice with marquise lace edging with a ruffle, long tapered sleeves ending in point over the hand, and tiered skirt, entrain. Her fingertip veil of French lace was held in place by a band of the same material and adorned with orange blossoms on either side. She carried a shower bouquet of bride roses.

The gown was fashioned and made by Miss Frances Scime of Hamilton, Ontario, cousin of the bridegroom.

Attendants were Mrs. James B. Swain, cousin of the bride, matron of honor; Miss Sue Giangreco, sister of the bridegroom, maid of honor; Guy Giangreco, brother of the bridegroom, best man; Raymond Herring, cousin of the bride, groomsman; and Keith Eder of Freeport, and Robert Reid, cousin of the bride, ushers.

Reception In Bride's Home

The ceremony was followed by a reception in the home of the bride's parents.

The couple left for a two-week trip to Rhinelander, Wis., and on their return will be at home in Jacksonville, where Mr. Giangreco will be a teacher in the Illinois School for the Deaf beginning in September.

Mr. Giangreco is a junior at Illinois College and a member of Sigma Phi Epsilon literary society.

Mr. Giangreco served in the medical corps for four years. He was graduated from Illinois College in 1948 and received his master's degree from Columbia University, New York City, with the class of 1949.

Assisting in the dining room at the reception were Lois Stewart, Anna Meyer, Marilyn Shaffner, Betty Jo Shewmaker, Eleanor Hempel, Barbara Seymour, Margaret Jane Slagle, Marjorie Murphy, Mrs. William Sanders, Mrs. John R. Chapman, Mrs. Willard Ranson and Mrs. Lewis R. Reid.

Mrs. John N. Ferguson took charge of the guest register.

Out Of Town Guests

Out of town guests included the bridegroom's mother, Mrs. Michael Giangreco, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Scime, Miss Sue Giangreco and Guy Giangreco of Buffalo, N. Y.; Mr. and Mrs. Walter Sanders and sons of Litchfield, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Westover and daughter, Marian, of Washington, D. C.

Mr. and Mrs. Everett Patterson, Mr. and Mrs. J. William Herring, Mr. and Mrs. Roland Reid, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Reid, Mr. and Mrs. Al Herring of Winchester; Miss Jane Pierce of New York, N. Y.; Mr. and Mrs. Karl Zempel of Lewiston; Mrs. Alton Seymour and daughter, Barbara, and Mrs. John Meyer and family of White Hall.

The date of the election has been set for Saturday, July 9, between the hours of 12 noon and 7 p.m. The polling places are the same as have been used for previous school board elections.

The ballot will necessarily be quite lengthy, giving every voter an opportunity to vote on each property.

This proposition should be of interest to all citizens residing in Community Unit School District No. 1. Several of these schools have not been in use for many years. All of the properties to be voted upon were in use during the 1948-49 school term.

These properties are no longer used for school purposes; consequently, they are deteriorating rapidly. It has been estimated that the upkeep of these unused properties amounts to over $3000 annually. Many individuals have expressed a desire to purchase these properties for personal use.

If the majority of the voters, through the ballot, signify their desire to have these properties sold, the Board of Education will notify the trustees who will conduct the public sale within 60 days after notification.

School District To Vote Whether To Keep Property

The Board of Education of Community Unit School District No. 1, Scott county, has received petitions calling for an election for the purpose of deciding whether or not school properties declared by the Board of Education, unsuitable, inconvenient and no longer needed for school purposes shall be sold.

These properties are known as the following schools: Independence, Claywell, Keller, Victory, East Hickory, Eureka, Pin Oak, Oak Dale, Bluff Dale, Ridge, North College, Exeter, West Hickory, Maple Grove, Pleasant Hill, Willow Branch, Fairview, Williams and Burrs.
